JUST LIKE THE NFL

Preparing for a loved one's long-term care is similar to preparing a football team for an upcoming game.

To quote from former NFL coach Herman Edwards (NY Jets, Kansas City Chiefs):

PREPARATION:

"The ability of everyone on the team to understand what it is going to take to win the game. Everyone has to understand that vision. Everyone has to understand how important their role is to winning the game.

When everyone understands what it takes to get it done, that's when you are prepared. Every player, every coach every person—it takes all of us. And we all have to see the same vision."
